PEQUOTS' GALA DAY.

Closing Galeties of the Summer Campaign of 1895-A Highly Successful Celebration Yesterday. The Peauot club had a very success ful and enjoyable meet yesterday at the Pequot house at Morris Cove. The weather was all that could be desired either for pleasure, sailing or for racing. About twenty-five boats participated, among them some from other places. At 2 o'clock the ladies were given a pleasant sall along the shore of the sound. THE SKIPPERS' RACE. After the return of the boats all was made ready for the Skippers' race. This was sailed over a course of six miles, the start and the finish being in front of the Pequot house, and the whole race could be easily seen from that place. At 3:34 the signal was given for the boats to start by a gun fired from the flagship Diana.

There was some misunderstanding at the start as to the firing of the starting gun from the flagship Diana. The race itself is declared by those who witnessed it to have been one of the finest sailed in New Haven for five

The wind was blowing from the southeast at the rate of seven miles an hour. The leading boats were nip and tuck at the finish, and the Charm, Skipper J. Walter Gallagher, crossed the finish line only about a quarter of a length in the lead. Time, 1 hour, 34 minutes, 54 seconds. The boat Endora, M. R. Durham, finished second, and the Ellen E., W. An Harris, third. The race was contested on the point n dispute at the start, and on a foul etween the yachts Charm and the Mist. The race was sailed under the racing rules of the New York yacht club, and the judges were Commodore Hinman, George A. Maycock, W. A. Harris and M. R. Durham. Owing to the perplexity of the points in dispute tives of Washington council, O. U. A. it is probable the race will be sailed over again.

In the evening there was a small display of fireworks and a salute was fired for the steamer Richard Peck. The last hop of the season was held in the club room of the Pequot house. Music was furnished by Robinson and Well.

The day was a very successful one and there were many more visitors than had been anticipated, about 130 taking dinner at the Pequot house. In the races the crack New London boat Nellie, was badly beaten.

The race was sailed for a silver chalenge cup, which goes to the skipper who wins it three times in succession The name of the winner and the date of the race are to be engraved upon it. In addition to this three souvenir prizes were given. The first, banquet lamp; second, very handsome barom eter; third, pennant.

Ten boats entered for the race, the Eudora, B. Dunham; Ellen E., W. A. Harris; Thetir, J. N. Champion; Edge wood, E. A. Foote; Nelfle, F. W. Benton; Mist, F. H. Kimberly; Bella, R. E. Wellman; Ripple, F. P. Lewis; Hyae M. Burwell; Charm, J. Walter Gal

Other yachts present were the Diana. Niagara, Mr. Ketchum; Cypress, J. L. Sargent; Muriel, Walter Gallagher, and Mr. Dunham's naphtha launch.

Among those resent were the following: Dr. N. H. Wheeler, W. H. Hale, M. P. Converse, J. C. Staples, Miss Alice North, Miss M. S. Hills, Mr. J. C. North, Mr. C. W. Pickett, Benjamin Osborn, May E. J. THE FOOT GUARDS

And Their Proposed Trip to Atlanta. The Second company Governor's Foot Guard are all interested in their proposed trip to Atlanta.

Mayor Hendrick said yesterday that ne would very much like to have the to be fair. ompany go to Atlanta and would do all in his power to aid in the enterprise He said the company had done very well if they had raised as much as was reported, and the citizens should help out in the remaining sum necessary to be raised in order to make the trip possible. The total expense of taking 120 members of the local guard to Atlanta will be $5,500. Of this the company agrees to subscribe $4,000, leaving the raising of the remainder to the public spirit of the citizens of New Haven.

The report of the business men's committee will be submitted to the company at the meeting on next Tuesday night, and at that time it will be definitely decided whether the trip will be taken

IN WEST HAVEN.

Funeral of George H. Larkin. The funeral services of George H Larkin were held yesterday afternoon at his late residence in West Haven, There was a large attendance of friends, the deceased being well known in the borough, having been years ago in the service of the West Haven Horse Railroad company and latterly having been foreman for W. W. Ward. For the past two years he had been in failing health owing to heart trouble. The Rev. Mr Edwards of the Methodist church in the borough officiated in the absence of Rev. Mr. Squires. Rev. Mr. Edwards made very feeling and sympathetic remarks appropriate to the sad occasion and the loss sustained by the bereaved ones. There were many tributes of flowers. Among those present were representa-M., of which deceased was a member and who conducted the services at the The pallbearers were members of the lodge. Stahl & Hegel of this city conducted the funeral ceremonies. The interment was in Oak Grove cemetery West Haven.

Lunch Wagon on the Green. The committee on licenses held a neeting in the city hall last night, Alderman Shanley presiding. The appliestablish a night lunch wagon on Center street, corner of Church, and another on Crown street, corner of Church, was granted, and he can have the wagons there from 7 p. m. until 3 a. m. for a yearly license of $25 each.

william J. Adams applied for permission to locate a wagon on the central help being charmed by its green. The location provoked some dispersion of the price of t cussion, but a license was finally granted him to locate on Temple street in ront of Trinity church.

William J. McInnis' application was ejected, as he mentioned no location or his wagon.
